Updates - Rt. 50 - Washington Street Project - February 19 - 26th

Thank you to those businesses on Washington Street for leaving your porch/outdoor lights on - it looks great! Very helpful in lighting up our town at night until we get the new street lights installed later this year! If you haven't started leaving on your porch/outdoor lights, please do so! Thank you!

Project update:

Crews installed Erosion Controls, and performed saw cuts on the road. They will continue with installing the remaining Erosion Controls and performing test pits.

Crews will be laying pipe on Friday, and continue through next week

Waterline Crews - Will start with connections Friday and continue with connections thru the next two weeks.

THE MOSBY HERITAGE AREA INTERPRETIVE GROUP (GGIG) IS PUTTING ON ITS FIRST PROGRAM OF THE SEASON ON SATURDAY NIGHT (FEB. 20) AT OATLANDS PLANTATION NEAR LEESBURG--7:30 p.m.--PLEASE COME!

"It is exciting for our new series of living history lanternlight programs--"Legends by Lanternlight" to feature a program on the experience of Oatlands from just before the Civil War until Reconstruction. There are slave, civilian, and even Mosby Ranger stories told about Oatlands in the first person as we wind our way through the plantation and spend time in some of its buildings. From Eric Buckland to Kevin Grigsby, Dave Goetz to Tracy Gillespie, your cast of characters, played by the region's history people, will bring alive a superb story from the 19th century. The program begins in the Carriage House Visitor Center at 7:30. We have had a little confusion on listing the price, although both Oatlands and MHAA are on the same page--we are giving you all the student price ($5) to be at Oatlands and then it is $10 for adults and $5 for students for the program--or $15 adults, $10 students, payable at the front desk as you arrive. Note: RESERVATIONS ARE NOT REQUIRED--just come! Please dress warmly and wear good boots, as we'll be both inside and out." <http://www.mosbyheritagearea.org>
